CHRIST CHURCH TEAM DEFEATS CHIMBORAZO
A close and interesting game was played at the Christ Church Association diamond yesterday afternoon between two of the fastest teams in the East End, the Chimborazo and the Christ Church Association. The Chimborazo led off with two runs in the first inning, but failed to score afterwards, while the C. C. A. boys scored seven, struck out a batsman, only allowing two hits. The score was as follows:

ERRORS COSTLY FOR WASHINGTON AND LEE
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, VA., April 17.—St. John's College defeated Washington and Lee to-day in a game marred by errors on the part of the locals, which lost them the game. George pitched a pretty game, kept his hits well scattered, and with sharper fielding than his team would have allowed few safeties. The left-hander again had the opposing batters guessing, and struck out thirteen. While also pitched good ball, and though given pretty support, his excellent box work was responsible for the home team's slump in the latter part of the game. The two teams were tied 2 to 2 at the end of the sixth, but the visitors' work was ragged.

MIDGETS TAKE GOOD GAME
A very interesting game of ball was played on the Tenth Street Flats yesterday afternoon between the Eleventh Street Midgets and the Seventh Street Stars, the former winning by the close score of 8 to 6. The line-up followed:

Eleventh Street Midgets—O. Carleton, catcher; H. Utley, pitcher; A. Womble, shortstop; H. Croery, first base; W. Jeter, second base; P. H. Peterson, third base; J. Carleton, right field; J. Croery, left field; G. Harris, center field.
Seventh Street Stars—C. Hall, catcher; W. Duke, first base; J. Hall, second base; R. Hall, third base; J. Dorsey, left field; H. Robinson, center field; R. Goldstein, right field.

Gets P. O. M. League.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 17.—Elmer Davis, an outfielder, secured by Manager Grims from Zanesville, O., in the P. O. M. League, reported to the manager this morning, having arrived in the city during the night. Davis comes well recommended, having had a good season last year with Zanesville, where he fielded at .985 and batted at .255. He will be given a chance to show what he can do in the right field, but it is not known yet whether he will be in shape or not for the opening game with Danville on Saturday.

TIGERS WIN POOR GAME FROM A. & M.

In a game replete with errors and heavy hitting, Princeton defeated the Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina yesterday by the score of 15 to 4. Sexton, who has been doing such good twirling for the farmers, was hit at will, and the support that he received from his team was of a very ragged sort. Wilson, for the Tigers, pitched very little better than Sexton, and it was the men behind him who saved the day. The game lasted only seven innings, or the score would have been larger. About 800 spectators were sprinkled over the grandstand and bleachers.

Princeton scored in every inning but the fifth, and in the sixth the rubber was crossed by six men. The A. & M. players showed lack of headwork. The whole team seemed capable of playing much better ball, evidently having a decidedly off day or being rattled by the big company they were playing with. Vaughn was the star performer for the Tigers. Out of four times at bat he made four runs and secured a three, two and one-base hit.

A. & M. led off at the bat, and the first ball tossed over Abernathy cracked to left for two sacks. Fox sacrificed him to third. Harris was thrown out at first by Sides, but Farmer scored a single that scored Abernathy. Farmer was put out in attempting to steal second. For Princeton, Fish walked, stole second when Warwick fanned, and romped home on Vaughn's slashing single to centre. Sides fanned, but Harlan singled to left, and Vaughn went out at first Farmer's throw.

The Tar Heels came back in a business-like manner. Counsel was thrown out at first by Wilson. Then Thompson was hit in the head by a hard ball. Black singled to left, and Vaughn stole and came home on the error of Dillon. Black stole both second and third, but was thrown out at home by Wilson. In the Tigers' half Phillips walked, but was thrown out at second by Thompson. Dawson fanned. Then Wilson sent a grounder that was good for a single to centre, but Counsel let it pass him, and the batter scored. Fish flew out to Harris. Princeton got two more runs in the next inning.

V. P. I. DEFEATS LEHIGH IN THE NINTH INNING
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, VA., April 17.—In the most exciting baseball game played here in years, V. P. I. defeated the crack team from Lehigh University 6 to 5. Three runs in the ninth inning tied the score, after victory for the visitors seemed certain, and a lucky hit by Austin on the home team won the game. The game was marred in such a way that it has not been seen here for a long time. Lacking sensational features the game was fast and clean throughout.

PLAY BALL!
"The Lawmakers will face Roanoke to-day in the first league game of the season with the intention of putting in a strong bid for the pennant. I will not be so rash as to say that we shall win, but if we lose it will not be for lack of endeavor or lack of good players. Every effort will be made to have Richmond leading the clubs at the end of the season."—Manager Perry Lipe.

"I believe the Roanoke team, which plays its first game with Richmond to-day, is an unusually strong aggregation, and will give the other clubs a rub for leadership. We are out to win all that we can, and all if we can; but baseball is an uncertain quantity, and now is not the time to make promises. We will, however, put up a hard fight for first place."—Manager Charles Shaffer.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE WILL OPEN TO-DAY
To-day's Games.
Roanoke at Richmond.
Danville at Lynchburg.
Portsmouth at Norfolk.

"Play ball!" That is the magic phrase which will tickle the ears of many thousands of fans when the Lawmakers and Roanoke, in the first game of the Virginia State League, will cross bats at Broad Street Park at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. These two short words will give the baseball enthusiasts their first tip as to the relative strength of the six teams.

If the weather holds good a record crowd promises to be in attendance when the first batter steps up to the rubber. Both Richmond and Roanoke are in good trim, and a great fight will be on for the first game and that 1000 per cent.

The alignment of the rivals will be as follows:

As will be seen, Manager Shaffer will not appear at first for the Highlanders. The visitors arrived in Richmond last night, putting up at the Lexington, and Shaffer made his appearance in the lobby with a game leg. In the contest with V. P. I. last Wednesday week, he was spiked by a college player, receiving a cut artery that will keep him out of the game for at least a week more. His place will be filled, however, by Painter, who hails from Webb City, Mo., where he played last season in the Western association.

Shaffer brought fifteen men with him, and has Edgar, catcher, and Verneville, Thompson, Staehr and Staley, pitchers, to fall back on for battery work. The two teams will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the City Hall, and will enter the park at 3:30, led by the Blues' Band, will parade the streets and then proceed to the park. The vehicles will enter the grounds and circle the diamond before the throw, after which they will descend and warm up for the contest. The field, Dr. J. B. Hartmore is to toss the ball out from the grandstand, and then the game begins.

The grounds are quickly getting into fine condition. A pipe line has been put into the park to sprinkle the diamond before each game, and a layer of sand has been spread over the earth to keep it dry and smooth. From his work at practice yesterday morning, it looks as if Sandherr is going to make a fast and reliable shortstop. The Atlanta fans are awfully sure that the manager let Lipe secure him. Sandherr is also said to be a good hitter.
